JOINT PROJECT OF OIL BETWEEN YEMENI PARTS FOILS

AIMS OF HOSTILE FORCES

ADEN, MARCH 8, ANA

Comrade Haider Abu-Dakar Al-Attas, Politburo member and Chairman of the Presidium of S.P.C, affirmed that an agreement on setting-up a joint project for exploring Oil by the two parts of Yemen is considered a decisive factor for foiling the aims of hostile forces against the unity and progress of Yemeni people and that will close the door ~~for~~ in face of enemies who try to fish in turbid water.

He said, in an interview published in Lebanese Magazine, Al-Hawadith, last issue that both political leaderships of the Yemeni homeland understand utterly, the real aims and goals of the hostile forces to Yemen, the forces who are unhappy for the Oil exploration in both parts and utilizing it jointly and at a time.

He expressed confidence that the gap of Oil through which the Imperialist and reactionaries try to penetrate will be closed, due to awareness of both leaderships and awareness to protect our people from the destructive risk of the conspiratorial, hatred and feverish plans.

He indicated that those who try sabotaging relations between both leaderships and to push in tensing the situation in Yemen arena they would not sabotage only the situations in Yemen but will cause destructive damage to security and stability in the whole region.

He clarified that the two Yemeni leadership continue intensively the negotiations with high spirit of National responsibility to set-up a joint cooperation in aspect of exploiting Oil Wealths, emanating from the aims of Sept. 26 and Oct. 14 Revolutions.

He affirmed that this major work will form when succeeded one of the solid unity brick in constructing the unity of Yomoni homeland by peaceful and Democratic means.
